Educational Value:

Model United Nations conferences provide our students with perhaps some of the most rigorous and enriching educational experiences available to high school students. Delegates must compose original research papers on pressing global issues, practice public speaking in front of large diverse audiences, and collaborate/negotiate with student delegates from across the state on effective real-world resolutions.

Trip Itinerary (list the trip itinerary and student activities):

Given strong student interest & the logistical challenges of executing large overnight field trips, we have decided to take half our club delegation to CMC & the other half to UC Davis. Please find attached a PDF containing itinerary & Davis roster.

Will students miss academic instruction? No

Please list the classes below:

Classroom Instruction Follow-Up/Assessment:

N/A

Students Attending (attach roster if additional space is needed):
