Confidential employee means any employee who is required to develop or present management positions with respect to employer-employee relations or whose duties normally require access to confidential information that is used to contribute significantly to the development of management positions. (Government Code 3540.1)

Membership

The district shall not deter or discourage employees or job applicants from becoming or remaining members of an employee organization, authorizing representation by an employee organization, or authorizing dues or fee deductions to an employee organization. In addition, the district shall not impose or threaten to impose reprisals on employees, discriminate or threaten to discriminate against employees, or otherwise interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees because of their membership or nonmembership in an employee organization. (Government Code 3543.5, 3550, 3551.5)

District Communications to Employees

The Superintendent Chief Learning Officer or designee may communicate with district employees regarding their rights to join and/or support ~~an officially recognized employee organization~~ or to refrain from joining or supporting an officially recognized employee organization. Such communications shall be factual and accurate, and may not promise a benefit, threaten a reprisal, or in any way deter or discourage employees from joining an employee organization or paying dues.

~~However, before disseminating~~ The district may disseminate written documents, recorded messages, or other mass communications to multiple actual or perspective employees any mass communication represented by an exclusive representative concerning employees' their rights under the law, such as a written document or script for oral or recorded presentation to join and/or message, support, or refrain from joining and/or supporting, an employee organization only after the Superintendent Chief Learning Officer or designee shall meet meets and confer confers with the employees' exclusive representative regarding concerning the content of the mass communication. If the district and exclusive representative do not come to agreement on the content of the mass communication and the district still chooses to disseminate it, the Superintendent Chief Learning Officer or designee may disseminate the district's mass communication, provided shall request that at the same time, copies of the exclusive representative's representative provide a communication, which shall be of reasonable length, are also distributed. to the district that shall be disseminated to the employees at the same time as the district's own mass communication. (Government Code ~~3553~~3556)

Access to New Employee Orientations

The district shall permit ~~employee organizations~~ each exclusive representative access to new employee orientation or onboarding process where newly hired employees represented by the exclusive representative are advised, whether in person, online, or through other means or mediums, of their employment status, rights, benefits, duties, responsibilities, or any other employment-related matters. The district shall provide ~~employee organizations~~ the exclusive representative at least 10 days' notice in advance of an orientation, except that a shorter notice may be provided ~~if~~ where there is an ~~unforeseeable~~, urgent need critical to the district's ~~operation prevents the required 10 days' notice.~~ operations that was not reasonably foreseeable. (Government Code ~~3555.5, 3556~~)

Following a request to negotiate by either party, the structure, time, and manner of access to new employee orientations shall be determined by mutual agreement of the district and the exclusive representative. If the district and exclusive representative fail to reach an agreement, ~~matters related to~~ the structure, time, and manner of access to the new employee orientation shall be subject to compulsory interest arbitration. The district and ~~employee organization~~ the exclusive representative may mutually agree to submit any dispute to compulsory interest arbitration at any time. In addition, if any dispute arises during negotiations and is not resolved within 45 days after the first meeting or within 60 days after the initial request to negotiate, whichever is earlier, either party may make a demand for compulsory interest arbitration. ~~The arbitrator selection process shall commence within 14 days of a party's demand for compulsory interest arbitration.~~ When any such dispute arises during the summer when the district's administrative office is closed, the timeline shall commence on the first day the administrative office reopens. The arbitrator's decision ~~of the arbitrator~~ shall be issued within 10 days and shall be final and binding on the parties. (Government Code 3556, 3557)

The date, time, and place of a new employee orientation shall not be disclosed to anyone other than employees, the exclusive representative, or a vendor that is contracted to provide a service for purposes of the orientation. (Government Code 3556)
