ELA CAASPP

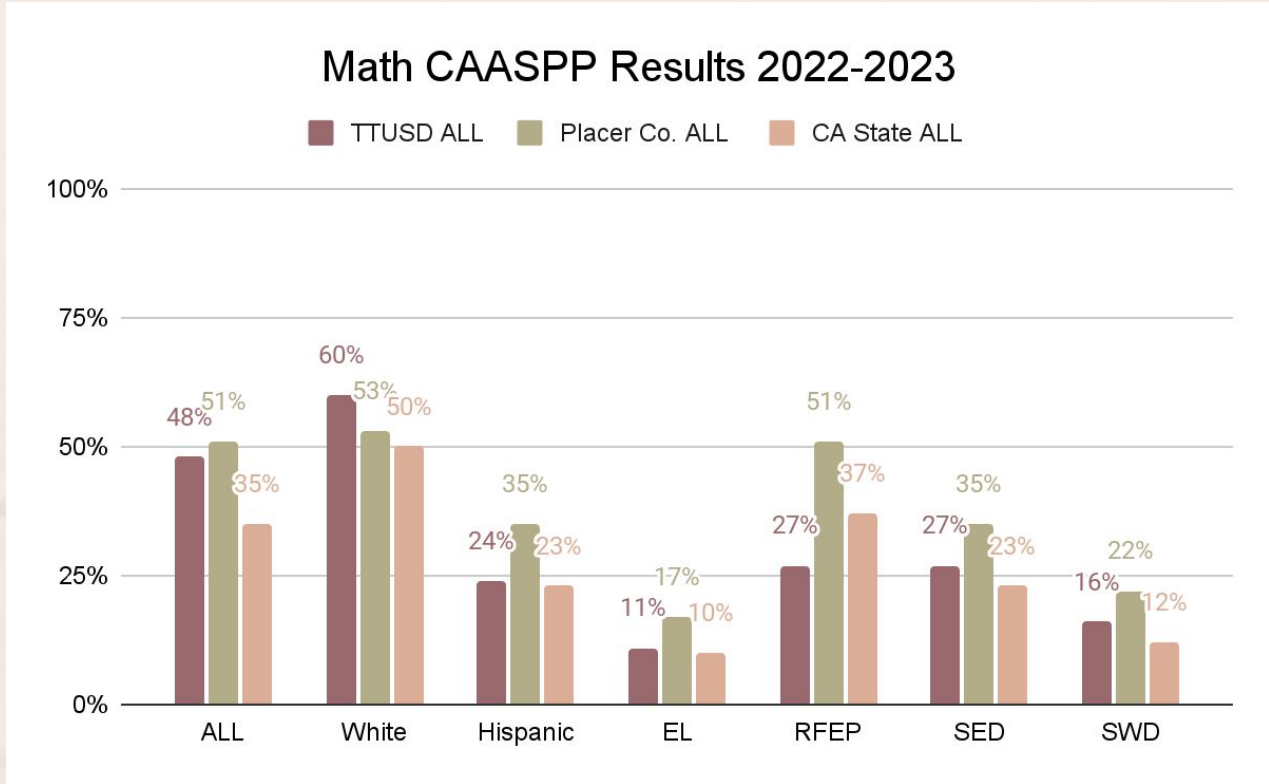

What we see:

- All grades' results do not significantly shift in student achievement.
- Decline in 11th grade proficiency trend in 2023, and still above the proficiency score
- Achievement gap persists for SED and EL subgroups.

What we have learned:

- Focusing on “near standards”, which is our tier 1 instruction, we will meet the needs of our largest percent of students.
 - We see higher percentage of at/above in ELA with a district-wide focus on literacy in comparison to math.
 - Focus on our English Learners using Academic Discourse in classrooms will target what our data is telling us.

Math CAASPP

What we see:

- All grades' and subgroup results do not significantly shift in student achievement.
- All subgroups % above CA results (RFEP are an exception).
- Overall, 11th grade decline, below proficiency score line, and a 94 point decline for EL subgroup.

What we have learned:

- Math needs to be a district wide focus while balancing the focus on literacy.
 - Focusing on “near standards,” we will meet the needs of our largest % of students.
 - Focus on the st. subgroups most in need (Ever EL) because of the persistent gap.
 - When TTUSD focuses on these specific subgroups, it supports achievement for all student groups.

What we see:

- Current 9th: increase in ELA for all subgroups (EL being the exception) from distance learning to in-person instruction.
- Current 12th grade: No CAASPP scores in 19-20 due to pandemic, and all subgroups declined in math from 7th grade to 11th grade.

What we have learned:

- We are happy to be in person!
 - Focus on Academic discourse strategies will support our College, Career Readiness.
 - Focus on in person math instruction with math pilot to fidelity.
