ACTION REQUESTED

First Read of Proposed Revision to Board Policy 5145.12, Search and Seizure

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Policy updated to reflect court decision upholding a school policy that called for limited searches without individualized suspicion if students left campus and returned in the middle of the day. Policy also updated to reflect law which places restrictions on searches of electronic devices such as cellular phones, court decision regarding searches of lockers without individualized suspicion, and court decision upholding policy of random weapons screening with a handheld metal detector.
